AVDP team is pleased to organize for the 11th consecutive year the International Dance Film Festival - ATHENS VIDEO DANCE PROJECT.

AVDP, the institution of videodance in Greece, is organized for the first time online. The Festival will be held on December 18-20, 2020, with free admission, at www.avdp.gr, highlighting for another year works by Greek and international artists from around the world.

As part of the 11th AVDP, 70 short, medium and long-length works from 20 countries will be screened, orchestrating a creative platform of innovative works and highlighting synergies between different art disciplines.

Now, more than ever, video contribution to the various art forms is crucial. The age we live in highlights and promotes modern technology as an expressive tool. New media provide new possibilities for artists, offering them an endless field of exploration and creation. AVDP, following closely these developments, gathers different art works of Greek and international artists with a common focus on video and presents them for three consecutive days.

Online at www.avdp.gr

The online screenings will be available at AVDP.gr :
From December 18 (12:00 noon, EET)
Until December 20 (24:00 pm, EET) 2020
